

Congressional Commendation

PRESENTED IN HONOR OF

Greg Folsom

IN CELEBRATION OF AMERICAN INDIAN HERITAGE MONTH

~ November 30, 2021 ~

It is an honor to recognize City of Suisun City, City Manager Greg Folsom today in celebration of American Indian Heritage Month. Mr. Folsom is a tribal member of the Choctaw Nation based in Oklahoma. Mr. Folsom earned a B.A. in business from San Jose State University, and an M.B.A. from the University of Southern California. After graduation he worked for several years in both the public and private sector in economic development and finance. In 2015 Mr. Folsom served as City Manager for the City of Clearlake diligently until 2019. Mr. Folsom started his service in Suisun City as the City Manager on April 2nd, 2019. Since his arrival, he has brought a professionalism, experience, leadership, stability, calmness, and humor to the position. He facilitated the creation of the city's first strategic plan, mission statements, and long-term fiscal model. Mr. Folsom has managed the city through uncertainty, turmoil, and a pandemic. Going above and beyond his position he is the only City Manager in Solano county that covers the city's Development Services Director position. On behalf of the people of California's 3rd Congressional District, please accept my sincere gratitude for your many years of service, as well my best wishes for your continued success and future accomplishments.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "John Garamendi". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned above a horizontal line.

JOHN GARAMENDI

*Member of Congress
3rd District, California*